Wade H. Atkinson, M.D.,
Washington, D.C.,
Dear Sir. -

I enclose application of Max S. Sonnenschein. He has been in communication with Mr. Adee, Acting Secretary, about getting a Passport. It is a long story, but I will tell you briefly, so you may turn over this letter in connection with the application - if it is called for.

Mr. Sonnenschein it seems is one of those wealthy men who has always been acquainted with the higher officials and instead of going about these things in the formal way, he has called on the higher officials, who, perhaps, knew less about the formalities than their clerks and assistants. For instance, as he says, when in New Orleans he wanted his Passport he invoked the aid of the Secretary or Governor of Louisiana, who was a friend of his — And how the Secretary got his passport he does not know. He left everything to his friend. He had done something about getting naturalized, in Chicago, before that, but he doesn't know what, or in which Court; and it would be an interminable job to find out, without knowing which records to search. As he came here under 18 years of age, it is probable that he got his "Minor's Certificate of Naturalization" at that time, and that he got his first passport on that paper, but he doesn't know, and even if he did he hasn't had that paper since for re-newing his Passports.

Previous to Judge Gresham's administration we could send an old Passport, with an affidavit, and get it re-newed; and Mr. Souvenstein has had his re-newed at the American Embassy in Vienna in that way. The Consul, Mr. Judd, had known him in New York, and attended to the re-newals personally. Having known him in New York Mr. Judd's records seem to have shown him naturalized in New York - And the records concerning his first Passport in New Orleans and his Vienna Passports seem to have clashed in Washington lately, and Mr. Adee lately wrote him concerning it.

He came to me and upon his stating that he came under 18 years of age and was acquainted then with several men who are prominent here now, I advised him that the easiest solution was for him to go with witnesses and secure an entirely new naturalization, which he did, and herewith transmits certificate with formal application for passport.

He showed me a letter which he has written Mr. ~~the~~ Adee, informing him of this new naturalization and application and thanking him for courteously informing him as to the "tangle", thus enabling him to take steps to straighten it out,

Very Truly,
M. A. Foote.

Department of State

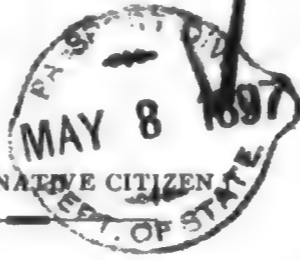

Gentlemen

Inclosed find application for a passport signed by my wife Anetta Stoinert, my citizens certificate, and herewith return passport. ... In answer to your letter where you state, my daughters name being a minor may be included in her mothers passport, but her name can not be inserted. I will respectfully refer you to rule 11. (of rules governing applications for passports) where it states the fact "her minor children may be included in her passport giving the respective ages of the children" This rule shows very clear if a child's age is shown in her passport, it can not go without a name. I therefore respectfully request to include in the same passport her daughters name Bertha Stoinert age 17. as stated in her application.

Gentlemen it may seem to you very strange that I insist so much on that to insert my daughters name in her mothers passport, but being myself many times abroad in different countries, I know to well how necessary it is to have said in a passport every thing clear, some time little things will make there troubles. Please return my citizens certificate and send a few application blanks for naturalized citizens

Yours very respectfully
